

Research Associate Professor

Technical Expertise

Training & Facilitation
Strategic & Operational Planning
Innovative Evaluation Research
Program Management & Reporting

Knowledge Domains

Curriculum Development
Monitoring & Evaluation
Institutional Capacity Building
International Health & Development

Professional Experience

Head of the Nutrition Bureau, Ministry of Health, Food-Nutrition and Child Survival section, Dakar, Senegal. 2002 - 2003.

Instructor & Graduate Teaching Assistant, Epidemiology, Nutrition, Research Methods, & Environmental Health, Dakar University, CESAG, Environmental Science Institute, Health and Population Institute, 1999-2003

Omnipractitioner, Health Districts of Thiadiaye- and Mbour, Senegal, 1999-2002

Manager of the Department of Radiology and Public Health, IOS- Dakar - Cheikh Anta Diop University, 1997-1999.

Select Services:

Consultant to: Public Health expert for ISED- Dakar University, UNICEF, and The French Cooperation Agency, Public Health Expert for WHO, Nutrition Epidemiologist for IDA/ National Nutrition Program, Senegal; Nutrition Expert for German Cooperation Agency (GTZ), Senegal; Monitoring & Evaluation Health Expert, CAMRIS Int'l.

Publication Areas

Giant cementomas in Senegalese women population; Investigating the meningitis epidemic in Thiadiaye Health District; Quality of Antenatal Care

Working Languages

English ◦ French ◦ Spanish ◦ Wolof

Appointed in 2002 to the Ministry of Health of Senegal- Division of food, nutrition and Child Survival as the Head of the National Nutrition section, Yaye Fatou Sarr has been involved in policy development for the Ministry of Health of Senegal and West African Countries (Nutrition and IMCI), and for WHO (International Health Regulation). Currently Assistant Professor at the Payson Center for International Development at Tulane University, Dr. Sarr has consulted with the National Nutrition Enhancement Project, funded by IDA; with ISED to oversee the implementation of the Urban Health Research Project in urban setting, a project financed by UNICEF and the French Cooperation Agency; with the GTZ food for peace project in Senegal, with Senegalese Ministry of Health and WHO investigation of the yellow fever epidemics; and the monitoring and evaluation of nutrition and child survival programs in Senegal. Yaye Fatou Sarr has taught Research Methods at CESAG and the Institute of Environment Sciences in Senegal to public health and environmental science professionals from several African countries. Dr. Sarr completed her dissertation research with the study of the predictive ability of food consumption indicators for food security in Mali.

Yaye Fatou Sarr,
Ph.D.

Contact

Curriculum Vitae

To contact us:

Payson Center for International Development
300 Hebert Hall
6823 St. Charles Ave.
New Orleans, LA 70118

Phone: 504-865-5240
Fax: 504-865-5241